

Kick-start your global YGP Talent Network on a 3-week Learning Journey!

Scholarship

Feldschlösschen (as part of the Carlsberg Group) and Young Global Pioneers are looking for talented students who are ambitious and curious to find out how they can make their mark as the next generation of responsible leaders.

Gain global insights and intercultural skills by travelling with approx. 20-25 selected talents, aged 19-25, coming from all over the world.

On a 3-week Learning Journey in Tanzania, you and your peers build relationships, forming a life-long YGP Talent Network. You will learn from and inspire each other and engage in mind opening learning activities, adventures, lectures and daily facilitated reflections. Within our intuitive learning architecture, you will have the opportunity to:

- Network with global talents and train intercultural understanding and emotional intelligence
- Learn about sustainability, climate change, circular economy, human rights and the SDGs
- Discover the culture, history, opportunities and challenges of the region
- Visit global corporations and gain an insight on how they create shared value
- Engage with talented youth from SOS Children's Village
- Meet up with young elite entrepreneurs passionate about changing their communities
- Learn about biodiversity, the human vs. nature conflict and explore the Tanzanian wildlife

IGNITING ASPIRATIONS

Young Global Pioneers establishes global talent networks, aiming to inspire young talents to become responsible and global-minded leaders. Each YGP Talent Network is kick-started on a three-week Learning Journey, designed to stimulate the young talents' global insights, intercultural understanding and aspirations to make their mark on the world. Our unique learning architecture has been developed by Professor Subramanian Rangan from INSEAD Business School, with each experience designed in partnership with companies, universities, Global Shapers from World Economic Forum, SOS Children's Village, and other affiliate organizations.

NETWORK FOR LIFE

The YGP Talent Network will be based on your shared experiences on the 3-week Learning Journey, and is strengthened through the interaction, teamwork, discussions and reflections within the group. Upon completion of the Learning Journey, the network continues with online networking and learning activities; including online Global Reflection seminars every three months.

THE FELDSCHLÖSSCHEN AND CARLSBERG SCHOLARSHIP

The scholarship is offered by The Carlsberg Bequest to the memory of Brewer J.C. Jacobsen, who supports practical, socially beneficial activities, particularly in connection with science. Feldschlösschen is part of the Carlsberg Group, one of the leading breweries in the world, whose brands are sold in more than 150 countries worldwide. Feldschlösschen not only strive to brew better beers, but also aim to give thought to the future. For Feldschlösschen, fostering intercultural interaction especially among young talents and the leaders of the next generation is key. Therefore, we are happy to encourage and support a young talent to attend the Learning Journey and join the YGP Global Talent Network. The scholarship will give participants the opportunity to broaden their horizon and build an international network by interacting with people from various countries.

WHO CAN APPLY AND WHAT IS INCLUDED

Young Global Pioneers connects young talents, who are ambitious and curious to find out how they can make their mark as the next-generation of responsible global leaders. To YGP, leadership and talent are also about striving to make a difference, and having the ambition to make it happen.
